Subject:- Release of Communist prisoner Ramachandra Nedungadi.

H. Please see Go No 2307 Home d 23.6.42 and the D.G's report in the C.F. In the order releasing Ramachandra Nedungadi, only his conviction by the S.D.M, Pollachi is referred to. The D.G says that the prisoner has another sentence of 14 days awarded by the S.D.M, Bellary. Presumably this conviction was for a prison offence. For orders whether the unexpired portion of this sentence may also be remitted, and if so, the draft order below is for approval.

we had no information about this, I think, when the above order was passed.

2. According to the existing orders of Public, the prisoner should, after release, ~~be prisoner~~ be sent to the Vellore jail as a security prisoner. It is not clear whether under the present conditions the prisoner should be detained as a detenue. Please see the D.G's request at A on p 2 C.F. Public may see whether the order of detention which is subsisting may be cancelled.
